Our Upcoming Week

Tues. 10/16 Math (Molnar) quiz

Wed. 10/17 Muffins for Moms

Thurs. 10/18 Math (Molnar) test

Our Learning

Religion – We will study the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Reading – We will be going over Cause & Effect with our story.

English – We will start learning about personal narratives.

Social Studies – We will continue learning about Europe.

Reminders

- We are an allergy aware class. Please avoid sending nut products in for snack.
- Winter uniform is now in effect. Please review the guidelines.

Little Notes

We're halfway through the trimester. Although interims are only being sent home to students whom I'm concerned about as far as grades and behavior, please use this as an opportunity to discuss with your child his/her progress and goals for the remainder of the trimester. Have a wonderful weekend!
