- English – The students will take their test on adjectives on Monday.
- Math (Jones) – They are working on fractions.

A Little Note

Yesterday at Mass, Fr. Matt talked to us about having grateful hearts. This is actually something we have discussed a lot over the past week, and I am just in love with how thoughtful these kids can be! I want to share that I am grateful that all my students and you, their parents, are in my life! Thank you for sharing your wonderful kids with me everyday!

Happy
Thanksgiving!

Important Extra Note

Please let me know ASAP if your child will not be here on Friday 12/21. We are in the final stages of planning the Christmas Program and need to know who will be here to participate.
